On July 21, the CoC Board reviewed the late submission and considered that other YHDP applications had been submitted on time and were eligible for review. After discussion, the Board determined that the late application would not move forward in the competition process.

Y.E.S. House was notified of the Board's decision by email and during a teleconference on July 24, 2026. During the teleconference, Y.E.S. House was invited to appeal the Board's decision. No appeal was submitted.
